You are going out of town
You have a guest visiting you, Your pastor is given a reception,
You are attending a concert, You or your friends are ill, An heir is born into your house.

A meeting for a specific purpose is called.
Your pastor preaches an exceptionally good sermon.
You buy a piece of property,
You are appointed to an office, You know anything of general interest, drop us a card, briefly stating the facts.

City Paragraphs.

The holiday season we have with us —nearly all the time.

Mr. John D. Fossett is taking a course in Latin, supplementary to his study of the law.

Miss Lucille Wilson, of Baltimore, spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Goodrich, of T street.

Governor P. B. S. Pinchback and Louis Ambler have been drawn for jury duty, December term of court.

Messrs. Williamson and Edwards are building up a good trade at the El Caney Cafe, 415 K street northwest.

Moore and Prioleau are entertaining a host of friends at their Saturday night "spreads," and the boys say they wouldn't miss a single "event."

Miss Lella Shelton and Miss Veronica Saunders, of Baltimore, were Thanksgiving guests of Miss Zita Ross.

Rev. B. W. Morris, of Newberne, N. C., a minister of the A. M. E. Conference of the Old North State, is in the city this week on business.

No fair in all the vast series of fairs this year has been more successful than that of St. Augustine's Catholic church.
It closed brilliantly Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Mary F. Carroll, of 348 Pennsylvania avenue, expects to attend the wedding of her cousin, Miss Mary Groes which takes place in a few days in Philadelphia.

Lewis H. Douglass was the first colored man appointed as a compositor in Government Printing Office. W. Calette was the second. W. Calette was once an employee in the Women's League, at its last formally withdrew from the Association of Colored Women. Mrs. Helen A. Cook of the Women's League of District of Columbia.

Immie Ione Gordon, of Pittsburg, was married to Mr. Robert of this city, by the Rev. G. aid, Wednesday night, November 10. Many valuable presents were received apny pair.

Mrs. L. D. Best, who were Thanksgiving night held their last Sunday from 5 to 8 p. m. some 1010 4 street, n. w. A large number of friends, relatives and acquaintances were present to tender their respects and well wishes.

Miss Belle Scott, a handsome and accomplished teacher in the public schools of Baltimore, spent the Thanksgiving holidays in the city, the guest of her cousin, Mrs. J. D. Hyman, 919 U street, northwest. She returned home Sunday evening.

No that the chilly December weather is at hand, it will be found a wise move to always have in the house some good whisky to ward off a cold or perhaps pneumonia. Try Naughton's Harper or Wilson whiskies, 1226 14th street, northwest. They are all right.

Dr. Sharp, editor of the Afro-American Speaker, Frederick, Md., a journal which gave Governor-Elect Smith a hearty and effective support during the recent campaign, was in the city Saturday evening, en route to Wilmington, N. C.

Miss Daisy Jackson has gone to Kansas City, Mo., and is at home with Prof. and Mrs. S. R. Bailey, 1004 Agnes avenue. Miss Jackson fills the vacancy in Lincoln High school recently caused by the resignation of Miss Clara Shippen.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell have leased their Alexandria property and are comfortably domiciled in this city at 1011 Third street northwest. Mr. Bell is one of the most popular attaches of the specification division of the Government Printing Office.

Mr. R. H. Shipley, Phar. D., of the 9th precinct, started last Sunday week for a ten day's vacation in Wheeling, W. Va. and Steubenville, Ohio. His uncle, George Snowden, lives in the latter place. Mr. Shipley has fully recovered from the effects of quite a severe fall, which he had not long ago from the patrol wagon which he drives.

The membership of the Personal Liberty League Club is on the increase, and the managers keep the best of order. Several improvements have been made of late in the arrangement of their handsome apartments, and Messrs. Edelin, Bowie, Hawkins and others exert themselves at all times to insure the comfort of the gentlemen who drop in for a pleasant chat, etc.
The Club is still located at 340 Pennsylvania avenue.

Recorder H. P. Cheatham has returned from a pleasant visit to his home at Littleton N. C. and other other points south. He reports an improved condition of affairs throughout the "Old North State," and feels confident that an aggressive campaign will result in the defeat of the proposed constitutional amendment. There is great rejoicing over the crushing of the Hardwick bill in Georgia, and it is believed that the episode will have a far-reaching effect to the betterment of the North Carolina situation.

STAL CARD

"The Bible" will be the subject of an interestingly arranged symposium at Bethel Literary Association Tuesday evening next. The meetings at Metropolitan A. M. E. church have been resumed. An evening with Bethel is sure to be profitable.

The reception of the Roosevelt Veteran Club on Tuesday evening at the parlors of the club, 144 U street, s. w., was a most enjoyable affair and was largely attended. Col. Robert Dorsey and Adj. George Brown managed to the satisfaction of all.

Prof. W. Henry Sherwood, A. M., M.
D., D. D. and LL. D., author of several books, and solicitor general for an orphanage in the South, has been spending some time in the city. Not long ago he visited the Transvaal and other portions of South Africa, and his experiences in that region are quite interesting.

The entertainment last Friday under the auspices of the Women's League was quite a success, despite the inclement weather and strong counter attractions. Hoffman's orchestra was at its best, and the young people enjoyed the "light fantastic" until 12 o'clock. Mrs. Helen A. Cook cordially received the guests, and was ably assisted in this pleasing duty by Mrs.
Ida D. Bailey, Miss Florence M. Williams and Miss Musette Brooks. The proceeds went to the support of the Day Nursery. Another reception will be given soon in aid of this very worthy institution.

Colored Bar Association.

The colored members of the bar of the District of Columbia met at the office of W. Calvin Chase Saturday of last week and perfected an organization looking toward the calling of a national convention to be held in May, 1900, by the active colored practicing lawyers of all the states and territories in the United States for the purpose of considering the federal Constitution and statute and the decisions of the federal appellate courts predicated thereon; the Constitution, statutes and decisions of the court of appeals in the several states, territories and the District of Columbia bearing upon the legal status of the Negro of this country and the administration of the laws, both state and federal courts, in all proceedings in which the Negro is a party.

Officers were chosen as follows: E. M.
Hewlett, president; W. C. Martin, first vice president; T. L. Jones, second vice president; P. W. Frisby, secretary; Royal A. Hughes, treasurer. Executive committee: W. Calvin Chase, W. G.
Martin, Royal A. Hughes, Wm. L.
Pollard, L. M. King and Scipio Baker.

Promising Young Woman Dead.

Miss Beulah Richardson, a young woman of great promise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. S. Richardson, died last Thursday morning, at the home of her parents, 18 Massachusetts avenue, northwest. She was only nineteen years of age, and had been compelled some months ago to discontinue her studies at the High School on account of the rapid progress of the dreaded disease consumption, which finally resulted in her death at the threshold of a bright career. Her funeral took place Saturday afternoon from the 15th Street Presbyterian church, Rev. F. J. Grinnick officiating.
Mr. and Mrs. Richardson have the sympathy of a large circle of friends and acquaintances in this very trying hour.

Mr. White as a Host.

Thanksgiving tide was made more joyous by the genial and whole-souled hospitality dispensed on Thursday evening of last week by Congressman George H. White at his handsome home, 1814 18th street northwest. The affair was purely informal, quite in the nature of a brief exchange of courtesies, and a chat upon current events. The parlor session was enlivened by musical selections rendered by a coterie of young people, including Miss Mamie White, Master George White and Miss Mamie Chestnut. The party adjourned to the spacious dining room, and at the congressional "table round," enjoyed for an hour a discussion of a number of good things that especially tickle a holiday palate. Mr. White proved himself an ideal host, and left nothing undone that seemed likely to enhance the pleasure of the evening. Those who sat at the festal board were Register J.
W. Lyons, Recorder H. P. Cheatham, Ex-Senator John P. Green, Major
Charles R. Douglass, Messrs. John H.
Hannon, Henry Y. Arnett, S. E. Lacy, W. S. Hagans, Lewis H. Douglass and
R. W. Thompson.

Baltimore Waking Up.

The Afro-American Investment Co. of Baltimore, Md., is an association of colored, men whose object is to erect a public hall. The capital stock is $5,000 and the membership at present is 85.

DR. SHEA, MARVELOUS MEDIUM.
$1,000 REWARD.
Gives the names of dead and living friends tells you and when you will marry also of business journeys lawsuits, absent friends health or anything you wish to know, no matter what it is. He can call up your spirit friends and show them to you. Can make them rap around the room. He asks no questions, don't ask you to write names for him. Don't try to pump you in any way, but tells you right off. He is thoroughly indoctrinated by reading spiritualists everywhere, received from them a gold medal and special license to practice his wonderful powers; credentials no one else can show can give thousands of references to both white and colored patrons.
Twenty-five years' practice—seven in brooklyn—will show you that he can do all he tell of. Can tell what business is best for you and where how to win speedy marriage with the one on love. How to be successful in all your doings in short what is best to do. He will cure all others fail. Positive satisfaction or no pay. Call and see. You will find it luck to consult this Christian gentleman.
He has a medicine that will cure drunkenness, can be given patients not knowing it.
Thousands through him are now

RICH, HAPPY AND SUCCESSFUL with a their under-akings, while those who neglect his advice are still laboring against poverty. Through his perfect knowledge of chemistry he can impart to you a secret that will overcome our enemies and win on friends. His aid and advice has often been solicited; the result has been a cure of curing of speed and happy marriages and all your wishes. In love affairs he never fails.
He has the secret of winning the affections of the opposite sex.
It is the curse of Spiritualism that in all large cities there are classes of men and women who claim powers they do not possess.
The have neither gifts, credentials, nor references. Sure the colored people are not wasting in sense as to throw their time and money away on such. Dr. Shea refers to the Hon. Charles Miller, capitalist, 281 A and avenue, the Hon. William J. Denmore, architect and builder, 47 Cleveland avenue, and Mr. Arthur Sewell, ship builder South Brooklyn. All have known him for the past ten years. He gives the most of his power to all. The doctor has practiced five years in New Orleans, St. Louis, Memphis and Louisville, understands thorough the diseases, spells or influences the race is subject to. He has now and always had large patronage from them

Brooklyn, August 15, 1891—This letter is to certify that I came to New York from Albu-ny, I was a stranger in a strange city, out of work and out of money. I had no luck in anything I undertook. What to do I did not know. I read advised me to see Dr. Shea.
I did. He told me the cause of my troubles; he took me in and treated me as a brother. Through him I got a position that very week. I had been to others, they took my money and did me no good. I bled the day I met Dr. Shea.
He would advise all in and sick, sick or in trouble to go to him at once.
Sincerely,
Albert Ayers,
2367 Atlantic Avenue.

Brooklyn, August 15, 1891—This letter is to certify that my husband had gone away and had been absent two years. I mourned for him night and day. I gave him up as dead.
Heard of him through Dr. Shea. Dr. Shea was doing I resolved to consult him. He told me that my husband was alive and well and where he would come home. I was almost insane. I went to Dr. Shea and he told me I would find my money and to my interview I find it as he told me. I thank God there is a man so gifted in our midst, that can help people and tell them what to do.
